More than 300 Guests at Party Given by Her Mother at Sherry's.

MRS. VARNUM ON ROAD TO RECOVERY

Miss Naomi Andrews Introduced at Reception - Mrs. Toucey Gives Large Theatre Party.

dig Hoyt, ward Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. E. Mortimer Stephen W. Van Robert Barber and George Bunker

ooser Bryce, Pembrok# Street, Civer & Roosevelt Robert G.
Home, Geralden L. Redmond, Madis in both Sabin, Harriet Lummis, Margerie Shanon, Alloe de Zaldo and Cornelia Chapin, also Daniel Tomlinson, Leonard Corness, J. Reference Course, John Nelson Cole, jr., and Herbert Neale.

Shanon, Alloe de Zaldo and Cornelia Chapin, also Daniel Tomlinson, Leonard Actress III, Play Halts. Pardee, John D. Prince, Jr. John K. Hol-Cox, McNiel Swasey and Altred Lattimer. The Bache McE, Whitlock, W. Brenton

ha Mrs. Valentine was assisted in re-

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Flint, Mr. and Mrs. J. The second of the Three Sherry Dances, organized by Mrs. Edward S. Knapp and Mrs. Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur others, will be held to-night at Sherry's. arrait, Mr. and Mrs. Prederic de Peys- Mrs. Frank E. Hagemeyer will give a and Mrs. Robert R. Crosby, Miss Eliza- Scott. A theatre party will follow the bein Thompson, Miss Priscilla Bull, Miss dinner. Elise Francke, Miss Adeline Townsend, Mas Marie Louise Rodowald, Miss Susan Mrs. Frank E. Stration will give a Any Bradish Johnson, Miss Lentilhon for her daughter, Miss Helen Blagden

There were also present Seymour John-Robert McCoskry Butt, Louis Keller. For the benefit of the New York Ortho-William Livingston, Reginald Banks, will be given this afternoon at the Wai-Beary C. Emmet, jr., Lawrence Atter-bary, Leonard Wyeth and Whitney War-sorza will sing, and Paul Kefer, 'cellist,

Mrs. Samuel Wakeman Andrews gave reception yesterday afternoon at her Mrs. William B. Leeds and Lady Lister-No. 875 Madison avenue, to introduce to society her daughter, Miss Naomi Andrews. Receiving with the debuinte were Miss Marion Becker, Miss bieline Hotchkiss, Miss Edith Milliken, Mas Virginia Geddes, Miss Jessica Bay-day from Boston and is at the Ritz-Cari-day from Boston and is at the Ritz-Cari-ton. is and Miss Elizabeth Kirlin. After the. eception there was a dinner for the retime party and an equal number of using men, and later Mrs. Andrews took " suests to see "Grumpy" at Wallack's Beatre. Afterward they went to the mimore for supper. Some of the men in the party were Hamilton Vreeland, Hersun Lord, Robert Brown, Louis Carman and Dr. Inglis Frost, Mrs. Andrews sid sire a dance for her daughter later

Mrs. John M. Toucey gave a theatre Such as hight, taking her guests to see and Mrs. W. H. Page, arrived here this

MRS. ROBERT TAYLOR VARNUM

Roberts, William Nicoll, Roger Sherman, last few weeks through Illness, is on the street.

William Sheehy.

have been sold.

Kaye will sail for Europe on January 14.

Mrs. Leeds will give a farewell conner and

J. L. Saltonstall arrived in town yester-ryn Motley are in the city from Morristown, N. J., and are at the Hotel Gotham,

Waldorf-Astoria this afternoon Miss Ma-non Broderick and Carlos Sebastian Will

Mr. and Mrs. Sayre in Paris.

Bowes Sayre, who have been the guests give exhibitions of the latest dances.

At Miss Doane's afternoon dance at the theatre party to-morrow evening.

sixty, were Mr. and Mrs. Le Roy Miller. GIVES COSTUME DANCE Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Alker, Mr. and Otto Mrs. Hunter Marston, Mr. and Mrs. Ed-Mrs. Hill Has About 175 Guests Barnes, Mr. and Mrs Charles W. Hub-

costume dance last night at Sherry's. Helen Harbeck, Miss Jessie Coogan, Miss | The large ballroom, decorated with palms, Stratton, Southern similax, bay trees and ferns, Warren Barber, George Miller, Harold M. with Taft and American Beauty roses New Year's favors were distributed, and The luncheon which Miss Rebecca Caldvell was to give yesterday at the Colony during supper Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Cas-There were cowboys, Quakers, Japanese Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wellman Moore. Chinese, sailors, pierrots, pierrettes, Inof No. 121 Madison avenue, will give their second musical, supper and dance at the ! Miss Hill wore a hoopskirt of the pe-Plaza on Thursday evening, January 15. Find of 1860, and Mr. Hill's costume was The artists will be Miss Maggle Teyte, that of a gentleman of the same time, soprano: Ada Sassoli, harpist: Rafaelo Mrs. William P. Gilmour, a sister of Mrs. Mr. and Diaz, tenor, and Nahan Franko and his Hill, wore a costume of a Swiss peasant. Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson was in a cos tume of a Russian court lady Mrs. Robert Taylor Varnum, who has been confined to her apartments for the received by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin N. Duke Dyne, Mrs. W. K. Van- ter, Miss Justine Ingersoll, was married to the Mrs. Robert B. Dula, Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Dula, Mr. and Mrs. Williamson W. Fuller, to Dr. Harold S. Arnold in October, in Mr. and Mrs. John B. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Yuille and William A. Marburg.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Expanse Steward, Miss Susan Street. A combination of case chantant, mov-Km Lesley F Pearson, Miss Barbara ing pictures, vaudeville and dancing in Law Lebey F Pearson. Miss Barbara ing pletures, vaudeville and dancing in the interests of various institutions for the limit blind will occupy the bailroom of the Plaza Hotel on Wednesday evening, January E. Miss Camilla Morgan, Miss Laura Webb, Miss Barre C common Miss Mary C common Miss Mary C common Miss Margaret Barrey Park, is the guiding genius of the affair, and sine will be accepted by Mrs. Robert Barrey Park Mrs. Robert Barrey Park Mrs. Robert Worth Mrs. Buford L. Patterbarre Mrs. Some of the Worth Mrs. Buford L. Patterbarre Mrs. Charles Worth Mrs. and Mrs. Buford L. Patterbarre Mrs. Charles Worth Mrs. And Mrs. Buford L. Patterbarre Mrs. Charles Worth Mrs. And Mrs. Buford L. Patterbarre Mrs. Charles Worth Mrs. And Mrs. Buford L. Patterbarre Mrs. Charles Worth Mrs. And Mrs. Buford L. Patterbarre Mrs. Charles Worth Mrs. And Mrs. Buford L. Patterbarre Mrs. Charles Worth Mrs. And Mrs. Buford L. Patterbarre Mrs. Charles Worth Mrs. And Mrs. Buford L. Patterbarre Mrs. Charles Worth Mrs. And Mrs. Charles Worth Mrs. C Some of the men at the dance were linear Astor, Jurge André In. David N. William Sheely.

Some of the men at the dance were linear Astor, Jurge André In. David N. William Sheely.

Duke, Miss Elizabeth Kendall, Miss Caro Hunt. Mrs. Livingston Pell and Mrs. and Mrs. Townsend Hornor, Miss Mary Duke, Miss Elizabeth Kendall, Miss Caro-There will be songs and fancy dances, | line Fuller, Miss Frederica Staats, Miss There will be songs and fancy dances. line Fuller, Miss Frederica Staats, Miss in which some of the participants will be Margaret Smith, Miss Dorothy Fuller, Reg. Evander H. Schley, Norreys J. Mrs. Roger M. Minton and the Misses Miss Gertrude Hill, Miss Katherine Hill, Margaret Bowers, Marjorie Ceveland, Walbridge Taft, Angler Duke, William Frances Montague Ward, Agnes Sheehy, Sturgis, Jr., Gifford Horton, Benjamin Clades Polyline, Polyline Western Ellis, and Gertrude Hill, Miss Katherine Hill, Margaret Bowers, Marjorie Ceveland, Valley, Walbridge Taft, Angler Duke, William Sturgis, Jr., Gifford Horton, Benjamin

Because of the collapse of Florence McE. Whitlock, W. Brenton
There will be small tables around the There will be small tables around the Reed, leading woman in "The Yellow Mattfeld, the touching pathos of the pres- 6th street. The ceremony was performed Time. Mattfeld, the touching pathos of the pres- 6th street. The Charles J. Smith, and a re- 2:10-Red, leading woman in "The Tellow hallroom where the men may smoke, and between the sketches there will be general dancing. One of the performers will be H L Bill, of Hartford, a bindy youth, and the leading woman in "The Tellow hallroom where the men may smoke, and between the sketches there will be general dancing. One of the performers will be H L Bill, of Hartford, a bindy youth, and the leading woman in "The Tellow hallroom where the men may smoke, and the followed at the Hotel day, which was to have replaced "Within the Law" at the Eltinge Theatre to-night. The house was decorated with tainers as a bando player. The affair will be followed by dancing.

Reed, leading woman in "The Tellow Hattfeld, the fouching pathos of the prescient children—a true poetic touch—the by the Reed, leading woman in "The Tellow Hattfeld, the followed at the Hotel day the postponement of the play, which was to have replaced "Within the Law" at the Eltinge Theatre to-night. The actives's physician refused to permit ner to appear to-night, declaring that a rest to appear to-night, declaring that a rest to appear to-night, declaring that a rest to appear to-night, and a re-low was to have replaced "Within the Law" at the Eltinge Theatre to-night. The actives's physician refused to permit ner to appear to-night, declaring that a rest to appear to-night, and a re-low that the followed at the Hotel day the postponement of the of several days was necessary to prevent

THEATRICAL NOTES.

A benefit performance of "Kitty Mackay" was given last night at the Comedy Mrs. Frank E. Hagemayer will give a distance of the Visit-Mr. and Mrr. John Parkin Gilford, Mr. avenue, for her daughter, Miss Evelyn avenue, for her daughter, Miss Evelyn Educational Association for the visiting teachers' fund. Among the guests and patrons interested in the performance was

John D. Rockefeller, jr. The Freezer, Miss Maude Shepherd, Miss dance to-night at No. 158 West 58th street | The management of the Winter Garden amusing in his small part. announces that the curtain will rise at 8 o'clock sharp at the opening of the performance of the "Whirl of the World" to- ing; a fact which becomes more and more morrow night, and that late comers will evident as the years pass, to the gratifi-

> B. F. Keith will give a theatrical party at his new Paradis de Danse, atop of the dinck's latest work. Alhambra Theatre, Sunday night. The guests of honor, and after modern dancing supper will be served. Many players from the current Broadway successes have accepted invitations.

William A. Brady and George Broad-Wednesday evening of next week.

The Dramatic Club of the Henry Street Mrs. W. Harry Motley and Miss Kath- Settlement will give their last performance of the one-act plays "Ryland," "The Price of Coal" and "Womenkind" to-night organization always draws. at Clinton Hall, No. 151 Clinton street.

The management of the Palace Theatre announces that for next week, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle and William Burress, Maggie Cline, "The Irish Queen," with new songs and stories, will appear, Paris, Jan. 8.-Mr. and Mrs. Francis Forbes-Robertson's matinee of 'Hamlet." for actors and actresses, at the Manof the American Ambassador in London. hattan Opera House to-day, will start at tion at the box office.

'GOOSE GIRL' OPERA AND MISS FARRAR

ments in the Operatic Repertory.

By H. E. KREHBIEL

of the works in the current repertory for he reign of the singers whose repularity, fixes the character of the list. So far as Wagner's operas are concerned speculaendure as long as there is a German contingent in the Metropolitan organization to perform them. They have become the Miss Harrison Wins New Suctrong prop of the institution outside of two lists has been about the same. In afternoon at a recital in Acolian Half, the five years of Mr. Couried's adminisditions to the German repertory-"Parsi- may take yet several years to be fully atto the theatre and in its employwhich had filled an interesting chapter in the Metropolitan Opera. Mr. Gatti's efforts behalf of the German list have been Thuille's Blech's "Versiegelt" and Richard Strauss's Rosenkavailer." He gave production to the Bohemian opera "The Bartered Bride" and the Russian "Pique Dame" in German. Smetana's opera may e said still to possess the germs of life, though circumstances make it seem mor-"Tiefland" and "Lobetanz" never with operatta Mr. Gatti, under of Mr. Dippel, attempts to revive Flötow's "Stradella" and Lortzing's "Czar und Zimmermann"

Real vitality, though not so much as is Gretel," has been shown by "Königskin- Mercer. this season at the Metropolitan last night. alive rests largely on the fair shoulders of Miss Farrar, but the fact remains that ances (one more than the normal quota) within the three seasons of its life and seven representations in the extra list. Its record in this respect is as good, fancy, as any opera in the regular list. "Hansel und Gretel" is due to a number few evidences of inspiration waiting on Mrs. Frederick Putnam Bellamy, yesterde when it was thought ism in the text, and for everybody too Mason Clarke officiated. much of everything in every act. The un- The bridegroom's father was his best conscionable protraction of the last scene man. The ushers were Frank Walton, has never failed to mar the enjoyment Howard Corlies, of Brooklyn, R. Stuywhich the work always brings to the se- vesant Pierrepont, Reese Denny Alsop rious lovers of the beautiful in scenery, Wilder Goodwin, Livingston Platt, Orson action, song, and their orchestral accom- D. Munn, Philip W. Boardman, Reginald paniment and complement. But the charm C. M. Pierce and Carrington Hannah, of of beautiful melody, of Miss Farrar's Manhattan. beautiful acting and eloquent singing, the fine characterization of the poetic figure the graphic delineation of other types of evening to J. Frederick Maxwell, in Holy "Boris Godounow" and "L'Amore dei Tre Miss Edith Pfirmann and Miss Viola Nollby der sister. Mass Henrietta Mrs. M. Orme Wilson will give a dinner a serious collapse.

Be' it may prove a permanent enrichmann. Richard Brandes was the best mann. Richard Brandes was the best mann. William and Robert Gaskell, when to the Metropolitan repertory and man. William and Robert Gaskell, Mr. Woods will announce the opening date as soon as Miss Reed is able to appear.

Mr. Woods will announce the opening ment to the Metropolitan repertory and man. William and Robert Gaskell, appear. when the inevitable crisis reaches it in Klages and Raymond Fenner were ushwhich the popular idols shall be no mo The only members new to the cast last night were the Woodcutter of Easil Ruysdael and the innkeeper of Robert Leon hardt, Mr. Ruysdael proved himself a worthy successor to Mr. Didur, giving to the character a tang of true originality a type quite in the German low comedy tradition. In addition his diction was unusually clear. Mr. Leonhardt was musing in his small part.

The audience was a fine one and showed a keen interest in all that was proceed. a keen interest in all that was proceeding: a fact which becomes more and more evident as the years pass, to the gratin-cation of those who have always believed in the vitality of Engelbert Humperdinck's latest work.

7 p. in.

Ball of the imperial Order Daughters of Empire, Waldorf-Astoria, 8 p. in.

Empire, Waldorf-Astoria, 8 p. in.

Entertainment and reception of the American Association of Masters, Mates and Fillots, United Harbor, No. 1, Terrace Garden, evening.

Potash and Perlmutter" company will be BOSTON SYMPHONY PLAYS Carnegie Hall Crowded for Classical Concert.

Our musical friends from Boston-and hurst's production of Walter Hackett's how thrice welcome are their monthly comedy, "Don't Weaken," at Maxine Elliott's Theatre, has been postponed until came to us again last night. Oversupplied as New Yorkers are with orchestral concerts, they are undersupplied with those of the Boston Symphony, as is evidenced by the size of the audiences which that gramme Dr. Muck close for last night's concert was scarcely one in which the popular note was dominant, it being a programme devoted to three of the classic masters-Haydn, Mozart and Beethoveneach of which was represented by a complete symphony. Yet, as ever, Carnegle Hall was filled from pit to dome, and the only vacant scats were in the intermis-

Praise for the great band was long ago

The individual readings of compositions have differed, the warmth of interpretation has been greater or less, according to the leader, but the band has ever fe-

Josef Haydn's Symphony in D major (B. & H., No. 2) was the one which A Glance at the Stable Eleflat major. Dr. Muck's splendid master, of detail was evident, while he led his mer with a fine and commanding sweep. It was, however, in the Beethoven First Symphony that he was at his best. What the grace and vivacity of the compon their endurance after time puts an end to tion. Happy were all hearers last night. chestra's next concert, to-morrow after

GIRL 'CELLIST IS HEARD cess at Recual.

Miss Beatrice Harrison, the young Engvelties within the last decade than Ger- recent Philharmonic concert won much terday afternoon the sale of a sixteenth mun, but the percentage of failures in the favorable notice, played again yesterday Miss Harrison's is a talent that is certration there were but two permanent ad-> firm, of a bowing that has breadth of style, and of a general sincerity of ex-

These virtues were amply in evidence in the opening Boccherna Sonata, and if bert's "Tiefland," Humperdinck's "Königskinder," Thuille's "Lobetanz," seems intent on following it. The future —nearly $100,000 for three rugs. The total should have for her much in store. Her of the Yerkes sale for sixteenth century audience yesterday was warm in its ex-pressions of appreciations.

NEW DEANERY DEDICATED Oathedral Building Is Opened With Reception.

secured a firm footing. As a more than st. John the Divine was opened yesterdignified offset to Conried's dailiance day afternoon with a reception at which the Dean William M. Grosvenor and the made Misses Grosvenor received the clergy of ers of the Church of the Incarnation, of for the experiment at opera comique in which Dean Grosvenor was formerly recful, but their failure brought no humilia- The reception was preceded by a short tion to performers or management. They dedicatory service by Bishop David H.

Rosenkavaller" is on trial this season, the reception were Bishop and Mrs. Greer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Hoffman, Miss markable Damascus mosque carpet of the Almee Townsend, Mrs. Lewis Hoyt, Bish-fifteenth century, said to be a rare fabric possessed by its companion, "Hansel und op Thomas and Dr. and Mrs. Archibald of its class and having a field of subdued

The deanery is the gift of Mrs. Helen Slade Ogilvie, built as a memorial to her It may be that the burden of keeping it husband, Clinton Ogilvie. It corresponds architecturally with the Choir School, the Ispahan rugs in the world, ranging in Deaconess House, the New Synod Hall t has had sixteen subscription perform- and the Bishop's House, which stand within the Cathedral close.

WEDDINGS.

Miss Florence Walton, daughter of Mr. of causes. There is some smell of mid-night oil in the music, and more than a few evidences of inspiration waiting on reflection. This is not to be won- day afternoon in the First Presbyterian dered at, for the operatic score is a Church, Brooklyn Heights. Ropes of laurevision and augmentation of a melo- rel hung from the galleries and were twine had come for another attempt at a revival of the ancient Greek style of dratween speech and sorg. Then, for those also used in the decorations at the Walwho understand, there is much turgidity ton home. No. 106 Willow street, where of speech and much unnecessary symbol- the reception was held. The Rev. Dr. L.

MAXWELL-GASKELL.

Miss Sarah Alker Gaskell, daughter of of der Fiedelmann, prosaically denominated "the Fiddler," but signifying much Mrs. Robert E. Gaskell, of No. Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Gaskell, of No. more in German romance, by Mr. Goritz, 529 East 65th street, was married last Teutonic story by Mr. Reiss and Miss Trinity Church, Central Park West and

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY. Free admission to the American Museum of Natural History, New York Zoological Park, Van Corlandt Park Museum and the Aquarium.

Automobile Show, Grand Central Palace. Meeting of the Board of Regents of American College of Surgeons, Waldorf-Astoria, 10:30 a.m.

Dance of the Young Ladies and Gentlemen's League of the Hospital for Deformities and Joint Diseases, Leslie Rooms, Broad-way and Sid street, evening. Lecture by Nat M. Brigham on "Our Na-tional Parks" before the Yale Club of New York City, No. 39 West 44th street, evening.

ubite lectures of the Board of Education

"We Are Seven". Maxine Elliott
Public lectures of the Board of Education,
8.15 p.m.: Manhattan—De Witt Clinton
High School, 59th street and Tenth avenue. "Panama." Frederick W. Davis: Wadleigh High School, 114th street and Seventh avenue. "Alexander The World Empire." Louis U. Wilkinson, Public School 14 No. 275 East 27th street. "Greek Aff.
Eugene Schoen. Public School 17. 47th street, west of Eighth avenue. "My Life in the Mikado's Empire." Dr. T. Alex Cairns, Public School 58. Dominick and Chark streets. "Greece and the Balkan Cark streets. "Greece and the Balkan
Cark streets. "Greece and the Balkan Cark streets." W. Jackson, Public School
52. Broasway, Inwood, "The City of London," Edward Justus Parker, Public School 61, 17th street, east of Avenue B.
"Life and Industries of the Japanese."
James Walter Doughty, Public School
58. Sth street, east of First avenue. "How a Chemist Works." Dr. Frederick C. Breithut; Public School 50, 147th street, west of Seventh avenue. "The President and life Powers." Dr. William MacDonald
2 Street, "The Yellowstone National Park."
Arthur K. Peck, Public School 162, 182d
Street, "The Yellowstone National Park."
Arthur K. Peck, Public School 162, 182d
Street, "The Yellowstone National Park."
Arthur K. Peck, Public School 162, 182d
Street, "The Yellowstone National Park."
Arthur K. Peck, Public School 162, 182d
Street, "The Yellowstone National Park."
Arthur K. Peck, Public School 162, 182d
Street, "The Yellowstone National Park."
Arthur K. Peck, Public School 162, 182d
Street, "The Yellowstone National Park."

Arthur K. Peck, Public School 163, 815 Linkshala
Street and Wadsworth avenue. "Rome
The Eternal City." Dr. Alfred D. F. Ham
Hin, Public School 162, 81, Nicholas avenue and 12th street. "London its Landmarks and Life." Frofesor Henry E.
Northrop; Public School 160, Suffolk and Rivingston streets. "An Andean Toor."

Mrs. M. Claire Franey.

ISPAHAN CARPET SOLD FOR $21,000

P. W. French & Co. Pay Top Price at Sale in American Galleries.

TOTAL FOR DAY IS $149,482.50

Mrs. John Jacob Astor Gives $375 for Samarkand Rug of the Eighteenth Century.

"Sold for $21,000."

It was Thomas E. Kirby's voice, which, accompanied by the sharp tap of his pencil, announced to a throng of bidders lish 'cellist, whose American debut at a space in the American Art Galleries yes> mous Yerkes sale of sixteenth century rugs, in 1916. P. W. French & Co. were the successful bidders.

This, the Agoplan saie, has been the ever held in New York, the total for yesterday being $149,482 50, and the total for the university in 1899. the Bach G major suite was less satis- the three days, $192,502 50. As a matter of a rule surmounted in a fashion satisfac-tory to all but the most fastidious. sixteenth century rug at the Marquand of the private eclipse expeditions sale. in 1903, held at the American Art of 1887, 1889, 1900 and 1905. He became di-If Miss Harrison has not yet exhausted Galleries, was $35,000. At the Yerkes sale rector of the Ladd Observatory upon its the possibilities of the music written for in Mendelssohn Hall, in 1910, Benguiat & construction, in 1891. Absent her chosen instrument, she is certainly a Co. gave $35,500 for an Ispahan rug. Anyoung artist who knows her road and other sold for $33,000 and a third for $7,000 rugs was $285,000, all being sold in one afternoon. At the J. Hampden Robb sale in 1912, $22,000 was paid for a rug of this iod and $15,000 for another.

This particular carpet, sold yesterday was of the time of the Shah Abbas, and the experts agree it is in a remarkable The long panel state of preservation. erald green, topaz yellow, sapphire blue and white. The main border shows light colors in floral design on a dark green Another antique Ispahan court carpet sold to the same buyers brought the next highest price, $17,000. This is described Rosenkavaller" is on trial this season, and there is no present need to speculate Mr. and Mrs. George Macculloch Miller. French & Co. also gave $14,600 for a re-$10,000.

(deep rose toned) background, which sus acteristic Iran design and coloring.

Other high prices paid at this session for antique rugs were $6,000 for an antique Ispahan court carpet by French & Co., $5,750 for a Persian state carpet by W. H. Coade, and $5,000 for an Asia Minor mosque carpet by T. Corinne.

Mrs. John Jacob Astor was an inter-Her purchases included an antique Samarkand silk rug of the teenth centhis afternoon.

Plays. 2:10-Forbes-Robertson ..... Manhattan EVENING. "Walkuere" ..... Metropolitan "Louise" "The Girl on the Film" .. 44th Street 8:15—"High Jinks".....Lyric "Potash and Perlmutter" ... Cohan's "The New Henrietta"

Knickerbocker 'A Thousand Years Ago" .. Shubert

"A Little Water on the Side" Hudson "General John Regan".....Liberty "The Misleading Lady".....Fulton "Legend of Leonora"..... Empire "Kitty MacKay" ..... Comedy 8:20-"At Bay"......39th Street "Tole" Longacre
"Peg o' My Heart" ...... Cort
"The Land of Promise" ... Lyceum "Seven Keys to Baldpate" .... Astor "To-day" .........48th Street
"The Madcap Duchess"......Globe "Young Wisdom" ..... Criterion

"The Secret"......Belasco "The Things That Count" Playhouse "The Strange Woman" ..... Galety "We Are Seven"..... Maxine Elliott

"Eliza Comes to Stay" . . . . Garrick

COLONEL CHARLES E. HOOKER

Jackson, Miss., Jan. 8.-Colonel Charles Hooker, ex-Attorney General of Mississippi, died in a hospital here last night from the infirmities of old age. Charles Edward Hooker was born in inion District, S. C., in 1835, and was craduated from the Harvard Law School in 1846. He practised law in Jackson. Miss. He became a member of the Missis the outbreak of the Civil War, when h enlisted in the Confederate cavalry, rk ing to the rank of colonel befor render of Lee. Colonel Hooker was At-torney General of Mississippi from 1883 tary authorities. He was associated with Charles O'Conor and James Lyons in th trial of Jefferson Davis for treason. It represented the 7th District of Mississippi in the national House of Representatives for about twenty years.

OBITUARY.

PROFESSOR WINSLOW UPTON

Winslow Upton, dean of Brown University, author and astronomer, died at his

Mass., in 1853, and was graduated from this final bid, there came a ripple of ap- Brown University in 1875. He was assistplause from those present, for many of ant at the Harvard Observatory from 1877 them knew that this was the highest price to 1879 and spent the following year as United States Naval Observatory, 1880-'81 and computer and assistant professor in third largest sale of rugs of that period He became a professor of astronomy at Brown in 1883, and was appointed dean of Professor Upton was a member of the comparison, the highest price paid for a United States Eclipse expeditions of 1878, from Brown, he was attached to the Southern station of the Harvard Observatory at Arequipa, Peru, 1896-'97. Pro-fessor Upton was the author of "The Star Atlas" for schools, published in 186.

MRS. KATE ACOSTA GRAHAM

Mrs. Kate Acosta Graham died yester-Flushing. She was born in Brooklyn, February 19, 1835, and was the widow o presents a complex all-over design in James Barnum Graham, and daughter of characteristic Iran coloring. The details the late John and Anne Nichols Acosta. include small, conventional lotus flower Mrs. Graham's death removes from Flushstellated blossoms, leafy sprays and white ing one of its oldest inhabitants, she havtichl, or "cloud band" devices, punctuated ing been a continuous resident there for lotus palmettes woven in tones of em- the last fifty-three years. She was known for her simple charity.

Mrs. Graham leaves five sons-Clason, Charles Augustus, Malcolm Montrose, James Barnum and Clinton. She was a member of St. George's Church, Flushing, where her funeral will be held to-morray was one of the most prominent Conserva tive statesmen in England about thirty red. The first bid for this carpet was years ago, died to-day. He held office in several cabinets. Disraeli appointed Senator William A. Clark, who, Mr. him Secretary of State for the Home De-Kirby says, has the greatest collection of partment in 1874, and he returned to that office in 1885 in Lord Sallsbury's first a price from $10,000 to $50,000 each, paid ministration. He was Secretary of State $13,600 yesterday for an Ispahan court for India, 1886-'92, and Lord Privy Seal in carpet of the Shah Abbas period. The Lord Salisbury's third administration long panel presents a typical Ispahan red 1895-1900. He was a member of the House tains a complex all-over design of char- the House of Lords twenty-eight years having been made a peer in 1885. He was ninety-one years old.

VISCOUNT CROSS

ALFRED DUDLEY HOYT.

Alfred Dudley Hoyt died yestern the home of his son-in-law, Charles Jone-Peabody, No. 128 Willow street, Brooklyn, ested spectator and also a small buyer. He was in his ninety-first year and had been ill only a short time. His funeral

> Mr. Hoyt was born in Manhattan. He was graduated at the Albany Boys' Academy and then got employment on a boat of the People's Line, rising to captain of the fleet. Later he entered the coal busi> ness here. In 1848 Mr. Hoyt married Miss Julia Van Dusen, of Hudson, N. Y. She died about eight years ago, and since then Mr. Hoyt made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Helen Peabody.

Bishop, Caroline C. Hunter, J. M. W.
Ginna, Daniel F.
Graham, Kate A.
Hoyt, Alfred D.

Hoyt, Alfred D.

Hunter, J. M. W.
Kent, Charlotte M.
McConnell, Jane C.
Smith, Malcolm H.

BISHOP-On Wednesday, January 7, Mrs. Caroline C. Bishop, aged 92 years. The funeral will be held at 10:20 o'clock Sat-urday morning, January 10, at her late, residence, No. 49 West 75th street, News-York City.

York City.

Ginna-Daniel F., beloved husband of Katherine Lewis Ginna, on Tuesday, January 5, 1914, at their home in Plainfield, N. J., of typhoid fever. Funeral services to be held at his late residence, No. 127 Watchung avenue, on Friday, January 9, at 2:15 o'clock. Carriages will meet Jersey Central train leaving Liberty street at 1 p. m.; 23d street, 12:29 p. m. Interment at Hillside Cemetery, at convenience of family. GRAHAM-On January 8, 1914, at her resi-

GRAHAM—On January 8, 1914, at her residence, No. 49 Jaggar ave., Flushing, N. Y., Kate Acosta, widow of James Varnum Graham and daughter of the late John and Anne Nichols Acosta. Funral services will be held at St. George's Church, Flushing, at 12 o'clock Saturday, January 19, 1914. Train leaves the Pennsylvania Station, Long Island Rallroad, at 11:15 a. in.

HOYT-On Thursday, January S, 1914, at the residence of his son-in-law, Charles J. Peabody, No. 12s Willow St. Brooklyn. Alfred Dudley Hoyt, in the 91st year of his aye, after a brief illness. Funeral service will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at his late residence.

HUNTER-On January 6, 1914, at Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Juliana M. W. Hunter, widow of Charles F. Hunter and daughter of the late George Zahriskie, all of New York City. Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral service, at the residence of her con-in-law, Mr. Andrew C. Zahriskie, No. 24 West 52d st. on Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

GENT-At Hackensack, N. J., on Wednes-day, January 7, Charlotte Mumford, widow of the late Henry Frederick Kent, Funeral services at Christ Church, Hack-ensack, on Friday, January 9, at 2:39

M'CONNELL-Jane Carson, daughter of the late Anna Brooks, at Madison, N. J. on January 8, in her 62d year. Fu-neral services at her late residence, Hill-side ave., Madison, on Saturday upon arrival of train leaving Hoboken at 12:15.

SMITH-Entered into rest at his home in Montelair. N. J., January 8, Malcolm Howard Smith, in the 74th year of his age. Little Falls, N. Y., Oneida and Canastota papers please copy.

CEMETERIES. THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY.

233d St. By Hariem Train, and by Coffice. 20 East 23c St., N. Y.

MAIN OFFICE—No. 154 Nassau street.

IPTOWN OFFICE—No. 1364 Broadway, or any American District Telegraph Office.

HARLEM OFFICE—No. 157 East 125th street, No. 253 West 125th street and No.
219 West 125th street.

at the Lorgacre Theatre. After-pafternoon. They drove to the American not already allotted to actors will be the perfection of detail are beine of Mrs. Toucey, No. 863 Park of Ambassador and Mrs. Myron T. Herthe Boston Orchestra's own, and have